

Wyndham Interfaith Network Youth Leadership Camp 2018

The Wyndham Interfaith Network offers a residential experience Tuesday 10th –Thursday 12th April (3days/2 nights) during the 2nd week of the April school holidays at Whitehall Guesthouse in Queenscliff

www.whitehallqueenscliff.com.au

Faith communities with a link to Wyndham can nominate 5 young potential leaders (between 16 – 25 years old) to join others. The total number of places for young people is 30. It is also possible for a faith leader to accompany the young people from their community as an observer and additional support. The camp is Co Ed with males and female accommodated on different floors of the facility. All costs are covered.

The camp will be facilitated by Wyndham CEC, the Gandhi experiment and Victoria Police. It will be active, creative, reflective and fun.

Themes:

- Building understanding;
- Responding to challenge
- intercultural skills;
- World's religions; and,
- Organising social action

Support and follow up will be available for young people to plan activities on leadership or social action. For further information contact Laurence Gray laurenceg@wyndhamcec.org.au 9742 4013

