Wyndham Community and Education Centre Inc

Policy and Procedure

- At Wyndham CEC, evidence is anything that supports the claim that a student has achieved a learning outcome. The TAS outlines the types of evidence that can be collected. It lists the rules of evidence - valid, sufficient, authentic and current and details the assessment processes and tools which satisfy the principles of assessment - validity, reliability, flexibility and fairness.
- To satisfactorily complete a unit of competency, a student must complete all learning outcomes. Each assessment task will be assessed as 'S' (satisfactory) or NS (not satisfactory). After work has been submitted and assessed, teachers are required to provide feedback on assessment results to all students.
- Students should discuss any issues they may have regarding assessment with their teacher and/or the LLN Coordinator.
- A delay of satisfactory completion can occur if a student misses too many classes or the work presented does not meet curriculum requirements in accordance with assessment guidelines for the accredited curriculum. Staff will work with students who are assessed as Not Yet Competent (NYC) and provide opportunities to satisfactorily complete units of competency to achieve a Competent (C) result where possible.

See Wyndham CEC's Establishing and Applying Decisions for Satisfactory Completion (including Delay of Satisfactory Completion and Reasonable Adjustment in Assessment) Procedure for more details.

- Reasonable adjustments in assessment can be made to meet the needs of individual students. This includes factors such as learning styles, physical or intellectual ability, language, literacy and numeracy levels, cultural background or socio-economic factors.

Wyndham CEC has a procedure for Establishing and Applying Decisions for Satisfactory Completion (including delay of satisfactory completion and reasonable adjustment in assessment) which is followed by assessors of Foundation Skills programs.

- Wyndham CEC has a Special Consideration Policy and Procedure which outlines the circumstances under which a student can apply for granting of special consideration. See Wyndham CEC's Special Consideration Policy and Procedure for full information.
- Authentication of assessment is the process of ensuring that the work submitted by students has actually been completed by them. Students need to be able to prove this through regular attendance, by completing class activities and by acknowledging any resources used in their work. Students must not receive undue assistance from any other person in the completion of assessment tasks. This includes copying or plagiarising other work.

Validation of training and assessment documents occurs at the end of each program and the validation outcome is taken into account in planning for future programs.

See Wyndham CEC's RPL and RCC Policy and Procedure and Recognition of Qualifications issued by other RTOs Policy & Procedure for detailed information.
