It lists the rules of evidence - valid, sufficient, authentic and current and details the assessment processes and tools which satisfy the principles of assessment - validity, reliability, flexibility and fairness.
 - to satisfactorily complete a unit of competency, a student must complete all learning outcomes. Each assessment task will be assessed as 'S' (satisfactory) or NS (not satisfactory). Wyndham Community and Education Centre Inc

Policy and Procedure

- students should discuss any issues they may have regarding assessment with their trainer and/or the VET Coordinator.
- a delay of satisfactory completion can occur if a student misses too many classes or the work presented does not meet training package requirements in accordance with assessment guidelines for the accredited training package. Staff will work with students who are assessed as Not Yet Competent (NYC) and provide opportunities to satisfactorily complete units of competency to achieve a Competent (C) result where possible.

See Wyndham CEC's Establishing and Applying Decisions for Satisfactory Completion (including Delay of Satisfactory Completion and Reasonable Adjustment in Assessment) Procedure for more details.

- Reasonable adjustments in assessment can be made to meet the needs of individual students. This includes factors such as learning styles, physical or intellectual ability, language, literacy and numeracy levels, cultural background or socio-economic factors.

Wyndham CEC has a procedure for Establishing and Applying Decisions for Satisfactory Completion (including delay of satisfactory completion and reasonable adjustment in assessment) which is followed by assessors of VET programs.

- Wyndham CEC has a Special Consideration Policy and Procedure which outlines the circumstances under which a student can apply for granting of special consideration. See Wyndham CEC's Special Consideration Policy and Procedure for full information.
- Authentication of assessment is the process of ensuring that the work submitted by students has actually been completed by them. Students need to be able to prove this through regular attendance, by completing class activities and by acknowledging any resources used in their work. Students must not receive undue assistance from any other person in the completion of assessment tasks. This includes copying or plagiarising other work.

Wyndham CEC has a Plagiarism, Cheating and Collusion Policy and Procedure which it follows in such instances.

- Validating and moderating the relevance and consistency of assessments and assessment judgements is critical to ensuring the assessments meet the accredited course and training package requirements.

Participation in validation and moderation is a key performance indicator on VET trainer work-plans.

Trainers delivering the VET training packages will undertake internal validation and moderation and external /consensus validation and moderation meetings at least twice a year.

Wyndham Community and Education Centre Inc

Policy and Procedure

Validation of training and assessment documents occurs at the end of each program and the validation outcome is taken into account in planning for future programs.

See Wyndham CEC's RPL Policy and Procedure and Recognition of Qualifications issued by other RTOs Policy & Procedure for detailed information.
