Context

The Victorian government has mandated that organisations working with children adhere to a set of standards to promote child safety, prevent child abuse and properly respond to allegations of child abuse. As part of embedding a culture of child safety across the organisation, Wyndham Community and Education Centre (Wyndham CEC) has developed a suite of resources and documents to effectively implement such a culture.

A child safe organisation has policies and practices that promote the safety and wellbeing of children at all levels of the organisation and encourage working together to prevent, respond to and report allegations of child abuse and harm.

Wyndham CEC will review its practices and policies regularly to ensure best practice. One practice recommended is that ongoing employees and volunteers sign a statement to agree to abide by a Child Safety Code of Conduct that outlines principles across the organisation and reinforces the importance of a whole of centre approach.

Management, Staff and volunteers at Wyndham Community and Education Centre (Wyndham CEC), are required to abide by this Child Safety Code of Conduct.

The Child Safety Code of Conduct has been developed to ensure a working environment where all staff and volunteers feel valued and respected and all students and clients feel welcome and safe. All children have the right to feel welcome and be safe.

All staff and volunteers will be asked to re-familiarise themselves with this Child Safety Code of Conduct and sign it annually. By signing it staff and volunteers acknowledge they have read it, understand it, and agree to abide by it.

Child safe behaviour and community-wide understanding of the risks of child abuse and its impacts is critical to keeping children safe.

Code

The Child Safety Code of Conduct applies to all staff working at the Wyndham CEC and includes all staff - full time, part time, sessional, casual staff, contractors and volunteers.

As directed by the CEO, management will:

- be responsible for embedding an organisational culture and commitment to child safety and wellbeing
- appoint a Child Safety Officer to provide information and support to staff, volunteers, young people, and their carers regarding child protection matters
- promote a confidential reporting culture

Child Safe Principles and Expectations

Wyndham CEC has a zero-tolerance approach to child abuse and to racism. All staff, volunteers and Board members of Wyndham CEC are required to observe child safe principles and maintain appropriate and positive behaviour towards and in the company of children.

This Child Safety Code of Conduct requires all personnel to:

- operate within Wyndham CEC's policies and procedures
- take all reasonable steps to protect children and young people from abuse
- establish and maintain a child-safe environment in the course of their work
- listen and respond to the views and concerns of children and young people and take appropriate action as required (see policies and procedures)
- promote the cultural safety, participation and empowerment of Aboriginal children and young people (for example, by never questioning an Aboriginal child/young person's self-identification)
- promote the cultural safety, participation and empowerment of children with culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds
- promote the safety, participation and empowerment of children and young people with a disability (for example, during personal care activities)
- promote the safety, participation and empowerment of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and intersex children and young people
- be professional in all actions and act as a positive role model in the presence of children and young people
- encourage children and young people to 'have a say' and participate in all relevant organisational activities where possible, especially on issues that are important to them
- respect the privacy of young people, their families, teachers and only disclose information to people who have a need to know
- report any allegations of child abuse to Wyndham CEC's CEO, a senior manager or the Child Safety Officer
